Tuesday July 18 - Grant's Farm & Anheuser Busch

Experience a visit to Grant’s Farm, the 281 acre estate of the late August Busch, Jr. The adventure begins at Grants Station where you board a tram for a tour of the grounds. The tram winds through the Deer Park, a game preserve where antelope, buffalo and other animals roam in a natural 160 acre habitat. You will pass Grant’s Cabin, a log home built by Ulysses Grant, 18th President of the United States.

Other stops include the Tier Garten with elephant and bird shows, a stroll to the Bauernhof which was built in 1913 where you can enjoy refreshments while viewing the elegant stables and the Busch family’s world-renowned carriage collection. A visit to the Clydesdale stallion barn will complete your visit.

Lunch on “the Hill”, a large Italian community, home to many Italian restaurants, bakeries and bocce alleys. You will dine at Favazza’s on the Hill.

The final tour stop will be the Anheuser-Busch Brewery for a 45 minute walking tour and see the World Famous Clydesdales, the Beechwood Aging Cellar and the Brew House where you will enjoy a sampling of the Anheuser-Busch products.

Tour will be approximately 7 hours departing at 9:00 a.m.

Cost $79.00 all inclusive.

Sunday July 23- Taste of St. Louis.

This tour includes a driving overview of the Loop, Soulard, Lafayette Square, The Hill and a stop at Ted Drewes Frozen Custard.

Treats include Fitz’s Root Beer in “the Loop” and Toasted Ravioli at a restaurant on “the Hill”. Next, a tour through the Soulard neighborhood which has the oldest farmer’s market west of the Mississippi and home to Anheuser-Busch Brewery and then a snack of Gus’ pretzels. The tour continues to Lafayette Park where many of the homes date to the 1870’s. A taste of St. Louis’ Gooney Butter cake is included too.

Tour will be 4 hours departing at 10:00 a.m.

Cost $52.00 all inclusive.
