

“Okay, I know that there are terrible people out there but listen.... I also know that there are people who stop and smile at tiny plants growing out of the sidewalk cracks, people who laugh so loud they snort, people who compliment others randomly, people who take pictures of their friends because they love seeing their friends happy, people who ramble about things that they’re passionate about, people who blush and stutter, people who are kind, people who are warm, people who love and love and love and love.”

Texas – Former State President Kelly Kinser lost her mother-in-law on Sunday. Please keep Kelly and her husband Mark in your prayers. If you remember they just recently lost Mark's father. So, this is really a hard time. Cards may be sent to them at 1915 Sandy Lake Rd #37, Carrollton TX 75006.

Darla Schitoskey's daughter, Amber Scott, that lives in Prosper. Amber has been diagnosed with Stage 4 Lung Cancer. It has metastasized to the bones in her spine and to her left femur. The femur is so severe that they'll need to place a pin in her leg to keep it from breaking. She has to stay off of it until then. Treatment- they're waiting on test results for Genetic Marker. If she has this Genetic Marker, then she'll be able to take a pill that will target these areas. If no GM, then she'll have chemotherapy. There's no cure. With GM her life expectancy is 1-1 1/2 years. With Chemo it's 3-5 years. Darla is staying there in Prosper to help them out. Amber's address is 4310 Fisher Rd, Prosper, Texas 75078 if you'd like to drop her a card.

Charlotte Foreman's husband, Vern, had a mild stroke Tuesday evening. He's in the hospital and will move to rehab tomorrow. It has affected his swallowing and speech. Please keep them in your prayers as well.
